

The British School

Secondary Lead Music Teacher to start from August 2023

The British School Kathmandu is a not-for-profit and a non-selective school, which has a rich history of educational excellence, compassion, and kindness stretching over 55 years in Nepal. The British School Kathmandu currently educates around 550 students from ages 3-18 from over 40 different countries, from both local and expatriate families, who trust us to care for and educate their children. Our students achieve excellent results, consistently well above UK averages, but more importantly, they are kind and a delight to teach.

Set within a leafy campus in Lalitpur, Kathmandu, Music is a well organised subject currently within our Creative and Performing Arts Faculty. TBS generally delivers Cambridge International and Edexcel examinations at IGCSE, AS and A Level.

We are looking for an enthusiastic Teacher of Music from August 2023. The successful candidate would be responsible for facilitating high quality education and support for students within the department.

The ideal candidate will:

- Be a highly effective classroom practitioner
- Establish and maintain a stimulating and safe learning environment
- Showcase and raise the profile of Music including supporting options processes, performances and instrumental tuition
- Have a passion for the teaching of Music and performance and share this enthusiasm with colleagues and students
- Have the ability to plan and deliver innovative Music schemes of work and lessons to meet the needs of all learners, challenging them to make continuous improvement
- Have a willingness to contribute to the vibrant school life through the delivery of extracurricular classes and offer additional skills that will support our school
- Work collaboratively with the Head of Faculty in establishing a clear, shared vision and ethos for Music.
- Liaise with the Primary Music teacher to ensure consistency and progression for learners

The British School

- Lead, manage and support elements of the instrumental tuition, working very closely with the specialist team

The school is a founding member of the Federation of British International Schools in Asia (FOBISIA) and a fully accredited member of the Confederation of British International Schools (COBIS).

Salary: competitive including annual flights, comprehensive medical cover, housing, freight allowance and gratuity.

Please submit a letter of application, a TBS application form, photograph & CV to Caro Drumm, Principal, The British School, Kathmandu by 1 pm KTM time on Friday, 9th December 2022. (early applications are encouraged). This can be completed and submitted either through our dedicated online application system: <https://teachapply.com/tbskathmandu/application.php?emp=1105&pos=219> or you can send your documents directly to the school via: recruitment@tbs.edu.np

Long-listed candidates may be interviewed via Skype/Zoom/Google Meet as soon as we receive the application.

The British School Kathmandu is committed to safeguarding children and young people. All post holders are subject to appropriate vetting procedures, including checks with past employers, a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service check, a Prohibition Order Check and the successful application of an ICPC (International Child Protection Certificate). Our safeguarding and safer recruitment policies are shared with all prospective candidates.

TBS does not discriminate with regard to race, colour, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, political opinion, or disability.

The British School Kathmandu

www.tbskathmandu.org

The British School