Secondary Headteacher

August 2023

The British School Kathmandu is seeking a Head of Secondary from August 2023. Leadership of the Secondary section of The British School Kathmandu means working with a dynamic and enthusiastic staff to continue to provide outstanding educational opportunities for our ambitious, internationally minded and compassionate students. The successful candidate will lead a team which includes an Academic Assistant Head and a Pastoral Assistant Head and will ensure that all staff continue to promote excellent academic progress and support student wellbeing. You will be leading the secondary school through an exciting stage in its development, embedding existing strategies and systems and implementing strategic improvement as we move forward.

The British School Kathmandu is a not-for-profit and a non-selective school, which has a rich history of educational excellence, compassion and kindness stretching over 55 years in Nepal. The British School Kathmandu currently educates around 550 students from ages 3-18 from over 40 different countries, from both local and expatriate families, who trust us to care for and educate their children. Our students achieve excellent results, consistently well above UK averages, but more importantly, they are kind and a delight to teach.

The school is a founding member of the Federation of British International Schools in Asia (FOBISIA) and a fully accredited member of the Confederation of British International Schools (COBIS). Our recent British Schools Overseas (BSO) inspection noted that “The British School in Kathmandu offers an outstanding education to the pupils and families that it serves.”
