With Angie Browne and Hannah Wilson, two former Headteachers, to develop your experience, expertise and confidence in leading social justice in your school.

We believe that supporting and challenging individuals in their beliefs around diversity, equity and inclusion, as well as ensuring cultural commitment to the work at a strategic level, are the best means of securing safe and inclusive schools for the whole community.

- 10 sessions over 12 months
- A series of interactive workshops
- Intersessional research tasks to be undertaken by all participants
- Delivered by 2 former Headteachers who have led this work in their own schools and in grassroots communities
- Recommended reading list

Costs per participant - 1205 SGD (£600*)

FX rate is assumed at 09/09/2021 selling rate
